Memo

Just over twenty years ago the state of South Dakota recognized the economic development potential that would emerge if resources were directed toward developing a highly educated information technology workforce. To this end, Dakota State University in Madison, South Dakota, reinvented itself from primarily a teacher education college to a recognized leader in the education of IT professionals. Students can choose from a number of undergraduate and graduate IT programs and starting in the Fall of 2006, a Doctor of Science in Information Systems.

Innovative and challenging academic programs - Every one of DSU's majors provide students with a foundation in technology. They can study in the fields of computer information systems and computer science, business, teacher education, arts and sciences with a number of unique degree programs including scientific forensic technology, digital arts and design or computer and network security.

Technology focused - Dakota State's campus-wide, wireless network is the perfect backdrop for our technology-infused courses. Each student is issued a convertible notebook computer to enhance this extraordinary learning experience. It's a powerful tool that changes the way they live and learn on campus and provides them with a distinctive set of skills to take out into today's workforce.

Memo

Northern State University serves more than 2500 students representing 36 states and 20 foreign countries. A challenging, multifaceted curriculum offers 40 majors, 42 minors, 6 associate, 8 preprofessional and 9 graduate degree areas.

NSU is committed to providing all students with a superior education, and has four colleges that offer a variety of reputable academic programs to choose from. The NSU College of Arts and Sciences has programs in the area of medicine, politics and foreign language to name a few. NSU has one of the largest business programs in the region, and our School of Business, which now includes new banking and financial services and sports marketing majors, is just one of the many reasons people from all over the world travel to South Dakota. The NSU School of Education is another reason. Psychology and guidance counseling, elementary and secondary education are some of the outstanding programs available. The NSU School of Fine Arts continues to produce some of the finest musicians, performers, and artists in the region. Whatever your interests, you will find a diverse selection of academic programs at Northern State University.

Lake Area Technical Institute was founded in 1965. Today, Lake Area Tech serves approximately 1300 full-time and part-time students in 22 programs of study and 2500 students through the Business and Industry Training program each year. Students who enroll at Lake Area Tech come from South Dakota, the borders of North Dakota and Minnesota and many other parts of the United States. The placement rate of graduates in a training related field is consistently over ninety percent. The institute is located at 230 11th Street Northeast and lies on a beautiful 30 acre campus. Lake Area Tech students are trained on state-of-the-art equipment in a state-of-the-art facility. Lake Area Tech employs approximately 145 staff. Lake Area Tech is recognized for its excellence and innovative techniques in delivering education regionally and nationally. Training has been provided for many years to CASE/New Holland technicians who come to Lake Area Tech from all over the world. Lake Area Tech has recently contracted with Singapore Airlines to deliver training to their aviation maintenance technicians. And Lake Tech provides certification to many different types of technicians to meet national standards giving them the ability to sell products in the global market. Lake Area Tech staff is exporting knowledge and training which in turn brings new dollars to South Dakota and the Watertown area.
